

ON THE CUTTING FLOOR

Free Sewing Patterns

Thanks for your interesting in participating in my website!

On the Cutting Floor has become an amazing journey in my life and I am proud of every step. I also know that I have not reached its full potential due to the lack of time to put into it.

As a work at home mother, I find myself on the dilemma of sacrificing my family time to make my business grow or spend less time working on this project.

None of these options are realistic. That is why I have decided to open the doors to new contributors for 2015.

It is clear that in order to grow I will need some help; creative contributors who will add their talent and expertise to this project. The contributors will also being strongly and widely promoted on my blog and social media. In this way, we can both keep growing our dreams of “doing what we love” (and luckily, being able to live out of it)
